

GHF International Council - Invitation

The GHF International Council is comprised of distinguished international business, philanthropic and civic leaders who support Global Heritage Fund's mission to save endangered global heritage sites in developing countries.

Role of International Council (IC) Members

- 1) Serve as 'ambassadors-at-large' for GHF heritage conservation and international development.
- 2) Provide advice and input to advance GHF's global leadership in heritage conservation and economic development in developing countries and regions.
- 3) Assist GHF in developing strong in-country relationships with individuals, corporations and governments.
- 4) Contribute a minimum of US$10,000 annually to help GHF save the most significant and endangered cultural heritage sites in the developing world.

Exclusive Benefits for International Council (IC) Members

- 1) Invitation to exclusive GHF International Council Trips to GHF Projects.
- 2) Invitations to GHF Forums on Cultural Heritage in a Developing World.
- 3) No obligations to attend meetings or to have legal, governance or fiduciary responsibilities.

In addition, International Council members receive benefits from the Conservation Society:

- 1) A Copy of GHF's Book, Saving Our Global Heritage.
- 2) Priority Tickets for GHF Events and Galas.
- 3) Invitations to GHF Roundtables, Special Events and Educational Seminars.
- 4) Exclusive Invitations to GHF Webinars with Conservation Experts.
